7/28/75

Dear Jim,

Playboy's librarian phoned this afternoon and ordered these four books be sent to you, billed to them.

They'll go special handling in the morning mail.

Letter from Jeff today explains that the xerox of Post Mortem was gobbled up somewhere in the corporate structure. He is very nice about it, offers to repay all costs, etc., but my real problem is not having it as a means of attempting to sell ancillary rights.

If you did not see it in your local paper, Foreman was indicted, with the two Hunts, for obstructing justice. This has been in the works for some time. I knew about it in Memphis.

As he put Ray away, so also did he put away those who did the Hunt dirty work. Only in the Hunt case there is proof of his being paid for it. The figure I had in October is $100,000.

I'm expecting to nring Post Mortem out myself.

Best,